

Last week was proclaimed "Registration Week" in Michigan by Governor Harry F. Kelly.

Laggard citizens who did not re-register in compliance with a new state law, affecting communities or townships of less than 5,000 with the town clerk by October 16 automatically forfeited the right to vote.

Result: That 150,000 to 200,000 rural voters were disfranchised on election day, November 5th, while Detroit and Wayne registrations reached an all-time peak. Try to explain that!

Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, who is now in Paris as a consultant to Secretary of State Byrnes made an interesting comment about democracy in a recent letter to his son, Arthur H. Vandenberg Jr., now in Grand Rapids.

"One of the things we are struggling over here in post-war Europe is to get FREE ELECTIONS," wrote the senator. "Upon our success in this regard may well depend the fate of several European countries. In our own democracy it is no less true that the fate of the nation depends upon free ballots in the hands of free electors. But these are no use unless the electors do their part."

Funny, isn't it, how we Americans go off to war to protect our freedom and then billy-goatishly, when we possess the right to exercise that freedom—the right to vote?

Don't be surprised if the old recommendation to reduce the state sales tax from 3 to 2 1/2 per cent is dusted off during the 1947 state legislative session. We understand that the proposal, once rejected by the state tax study commission, is being seriously reconsidered. Reason: Cities would give the right to levy a one-half cent local tax.

War is hell, of course, but how about Michigan traffic accidents? Believe-it-or-not figures: August traffic deaths increased 46 per cent over August 1946. A total of 583 more persons were killed in Michigan traffic mishaps in the 54 months preceding the national emergency than the number of Michigan men killed in action during World War II. Every third car on the road is in an unsafe driving condition, according to recent tests. Actually it's safer, on a mile basis, to fly in a licensed airplane than to travel in an automobile.

Since rural sections showed the greatest percentage of accidents, decrease, don't take for granted that no one is approaching the next highway intersection. You may be mistaken, and then it'll be too late.

The writer's regret-of-the-week: That we were unable to attend the George E. Bishop testimonial party at Marquette this week. Born in a log cabin near Scottville in 1882, George set up housekeeping at Stambaugh as a modestly-paid principal of a general school township, he was chosen secretary-manager of a township development bureau. Entering George E. Bishop was given more responsibilities, culminating with appointment in 1921 as secretary-manager of the Upper Peninsula Development Bureau. Good luck, George! We wish Michigan had more boosters like you.

Table-toppers in Michigan, seeking to increase profits through sale of liquor by the glass, took a smashing defeat in Battle Creek the other day. At a special election the plan was rejected emphatically, two-to-one. Does this indicate that public opinion still supports Michigan liquor control system?

The most popular amendment to the state constitution perhaps ever proposed in Michigan appears to be Ballot Proposal No. 1 before Michigan voters November 5. Designed to correct a flaw in the law which forbids local governments from spending a dime on airports, the constitutional amendment has been endorsed by about every leading organization in the state. The list is lengthy, but among them are the Michigan Farm Bureau, Michigan Grange, Michigan Allied Dairy Association, Detroit Board of Commerce, Michigan Bar Association, and all major tourist associations. Modern Michigan must have airports. It looks like everyone is going to benefit by adoption of this ballot proposal. Even the Michigan Survey of Public Expenditures, a taxpayers' organization, has given its blessing. And that's something!

Michigan newspapers took a bow last week. The State of Michigan, through Auditor General John D. Morrison, has selected newspapers to carry report to taxpayers on its financial condition during the fiscal year ending June 30.

Although Mr. Morrison is not running for re-election and hence the report has no political implications, you will be interested to note that the year's operating surplus was $16 millions and that the added cost in taxes from the proposed veterans bonus would be $17.5 millions a year.

In other words, if Michigan would have had the bonus pay last fiscal year, there would have been NO surplus in the year's (Continued on Page Four)

Wave Rolls Over Gaylord, 24-0; Mancelona Comes Here Tomorrow

Grayling's Tackling and Blocking Show Much Improvement.

Scoring in the first, twice in the second, and again in the last quarter, the Grayling Green Wave rolled unchecked over the Gaylord High eleven at that city last Friday afternoon, to a 24 to 0 victory.

Gaylord received the kickoff, and, after failing to gain, punted. On the first play from scrimmage, fullback Phil Kewey circled his right end and cut back sharply behind fine downfield blocking to go 50 yards for the first score.

In the second quarter, End Dick Miller snagged a pretty pass from Halfback Ed Carlson to score standing up. This score was followed by a cleverly executed quarterback sneak by Chuck Feldhauser, to roll up a 18 to 0 score at half time.

The Grayling team seemed to let down during the third quarter, but in the first half, Coach Cornell said he thought the team showed their best form of the year. However, during the final half, the team appeared slipped at times. The air-tight Grayling defense held the northern neighbor city eleven to only four first downs.

Goss and R. Miller started at ends, Kragge and Douglas at tackles, Grimstad and Hanna at guards, and Crawford at the pivot post. In the backfield, Feldhauser started at quarter, with Carlson and Smock at halves, and Kewey at full. Hanson and C. Papendick saw service as ends. Lozon, J. Feldhauser and Bielski at tackles. J. Rasmussen and McEvers at guards, and Clare Burns at center. E. Rasmussen played part of the game at quarter and Parkinson at half, while Smock took over the fullback duties.

Ironmen Invade

The Mancelona Ironmen invade Grayling this Friday afternoon with one of the heaviest eleven in the conference. The squad, studied with seniors, has lost but one game this year, that to Charlevoix, while trampling Pellston, 21 to 0, and to Jordan, 28 to 0. They took Harbor Springs into camp last week-end.

This week's contest should be the one of the outstanding games of the season, as the records of the two teams seem to balance the score of the two squads. Because of the vast improvement of the Grayling squad in fundamentals, Coach Cornell is figuring to beat Mancelona—and is setting up a fast, shifty running attack to outpace the heavy Mancelona forward wall.

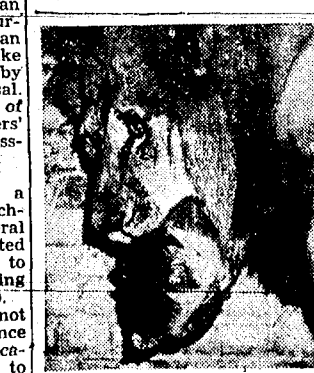

Captain Harry Miller reported for practice this week, the first time since he suffered a severe kidney injury in the Roscommon contest. Coach Cornell said he would keep the husky linesman out of hard contact with the first part of the week, and if Miller receives the doctor's approval, he may see action against the Ironmen on Friday.

If the Grayling blocking is as good as last week and the interference can shake loose such shifty runners as Smock, Carlson and Kewey, the local team should be able to a little more than hold their own with the invading Ironmen from Mancelona. The Grayling air attack which clicked well against Gaylord will be well-oiled for the clash with Mancelona—in addition to the hard running attack.

BENNETT ELECTRIC SERVICE SHOP IN NEW QUARTERS

The Bennett Service Shop, owned and operated by Lyle Bennett, has moved from its former quarters on Cedar Street near M-72 to the old bakery building on Cedar Street just off Michigan Ave.

Although the moving of equipment and merchandise was started last week and it is now all in the new quarters, Bennett states that they had not as yet placed everything or erected all of the counters and display racks for the new store. Present plans call for a complete remodeling of the building.

LEO GETS HIS SHARE . . . Apparently aware of the crisis which has made millions of Americans meal-starved in Leo, star boarder at the Bronx zoo. The cagey king of beasts retreats to a corner to enjoy his meal of the scarce food.

Blaze Wrecks Gaylord Paper

The Otsego County Herald-Times, Gaylord's weekly newspaper office and plant, were completely destroyed by flames in a two and one-half hour blaze Sunday night which swept away the interior of the brick building and all the contents.

Loss, which has not as yet been specifically determined, is expected to run into the tens of thousands of dollars. The heavy damage was but partly covered by insurance.

The destructive fire started about 7:30 Sunday evening, the cause of which was not immediately determined. The owner of about two months, J. H. McKiddie, who had purchased the business from Arlington Reynolds, had been working most of the day at the newspaper plant and had left the building a scant hour before the blaze was discovered.

Gaylord firemen kept the flames bottled up in the plant, and furniture belonging to McKiddie which was stored in the second floor of the building suffered damage by water and smoke. Flames were prevented by the firefighters from damaging the property of the Gaylord State Savings Bank, which is located in the same building but faces the main street, and a three-story store next door which houses business offices, apartments, and a department store. Water and smoke, however, caused some damage to both premises.

The paper was owned and published by Paul McDonald from 1919 until a year ago last summer when it was sold to Reynolds. He in turn, sold it to McKiddie about two months ago.

TRAVERSE CITY CHAMBER ARRANGES BUILDERS SESSION

The Traverse City Chamber of Commerce has made arrangements for the builders and suppliers of Crawford County to meet with representatives of the EMTA and NHA at Traverse City on Tuesday, October 22, at eight o'clock in the evening at the Park Place Hotel.

The purpose of the meeting is to acquaint builders and building supply men with the department plan in operation for at least eight weeks and possibly longer, Parks Chief Elmer said. Plans call for additional miles of ski and snow trails to be opened, and also the possible establishment of a separate saddle ski and sled run for youngsters, he added.

Snow trains will be operated this year, it was revealed, and an attempt will be made to interest the railroad in running in Pullman trains with chairs attached for a full week-end lay over. Investigations will be carried out to find suitable housing for a number of large busses in order to also bring bus caravans for more than one day.

Discussion on moving the ice rink and ski jump was long, without any real decision being forthcoming. Also under discussion was the possibility of an entrance or parking charge and the down-scaling of service charges if an entrance charge is instituted.

Present from Grayling were the newly-elected Chamber president, Wesley Kumpula, vice-president John H. Peterson, secretary-treasurer Jerome Kessler, past-president Arthur Clough, Robert Strong and Clifford Oates.

A general and vice-chairman for winter sports will be named by the Grayling Chamber of Commerce at their meeting early in November. The two men will appoint the various committees to assist them in making arrangements.

Pot-luck Dinner To Welcome Rev. R. C. Puffer

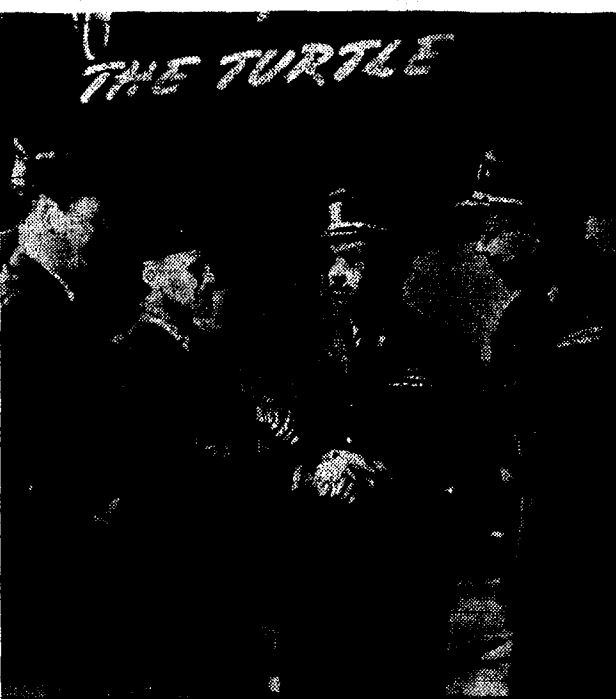

Around 125 interested people were on hand last Wednesday evening to welcome the new pastor, Rev. R. C. Puffer, and his family. Rev. Puffer was appointed to the church pastorate at the Detroit Annual Conference, held in Port Huron last June. Mr. Puffer was having a year's vacation from preaching, and with his wife and daughter, was living on the farm near Spencer (where he was born) when he was called upon to come to Grayling as one of the supply ministers, after the death of Rev. Ernest Benedict in February. The congregation liked him, and took steps to have him assigned to their church when the Conference met. During the interval he served on a temporary basis.

The affair was a pot-luck dinner sponsored by the combined Aids, and in spite of the shortages there were plenty of good things to eat. Frank Bond introduced Major Ernest Larson who gave an address welcoming Rev. and Mrs. Puffer and their daughter, Miss Gene. Mr. and Mrs. Puffer each spoke a few words, after which Mr. Bond introduced the officers of the church and Sunday School and Aids. Rev. Bertha Davis of the Free Methodist Church, and Rev. and Mrs. Svend Holm of the Grayling Evangelical Lutheran Church were guests.

Don Gothro and Fred Welch Jr. were in charge of the games which followed. Prizes were awarded to Rev. Puffer and Mrs. Edward Pennington. George Granger, Mrs. Glen Day, Mrs. Carl Richardson and Robert Funck.

A community sing concluded the evening's entertainment. Mrs. Emil Giegling accompanying at the piano.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold MacNeven spent the week-end in East Lansing, visiting their daughter and husband, the Larry Frymires, and attended the Michigan State and U. of Mississippi football game on Saturday.

Discuss Plans For This Year's Winter Sports Program

Arthur Elmer, chief of the Parks Division of the Michigan Conservation Department, Robert Dodge, area supervisor of parks, and William Richter of Bay City, who will be in charge of the Grayling Winter Recreation Area this season, met with representatives of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce at the Crawford County courthouse Monday afternoon.

Plans for the coming season were mapped, with Mr. Elmer telling the group what the department will do at the park. It was announced that the carnival week-end would occur on the last week-end in January.

It is hoped to open the area for winter recreation on the week-end following Christmas and keep the park in operation for at least eight weeks and possibly longer, Parks Chief Elmer said. Plans call for additional miles of ski and snow trails to be opened, and also the possible establishment of a separate saddle ski and sled run for youngsters, he added.

Snow trains will be operated this year, it was revealed, and an attempt will be made to interest the railroad in running in Pullman trains with chairs attached for a full week-end lay over. Investigations will be carried out to find suitable housing for a number of large busses in order to also bring bus caravans for more than one day.

ments for putting on the colorful carnival and handling the huge crowds and entertaining them.

Publicity on the winter program will start in the very near future. Work is under way at the park now with one project being the start on the new toboggan takeoff building, which will be considerably larger than the former structure which was destroyed by fire. Foundation work is already started and the huge plank siding, in which the new structure will be finished, has been received.

Both the Parks Division and the Grayling Chamber of Commerce will be represented at the next meeting of the EMTA Winter Sports Council, which has tentatively been set for October 30 at Alpena. At the same time, all winter sports centers will choose their carnival dates and the advertising and publicity budget offered.

According to the tentative plans of action set up by the Parks Division and the Chamber of Commerce, this year's activities at the huge state-owned winter recreation area west of Grayling should be a great deal larger in scope and attendance than last year's program, which was the first post-war operation at the ice and snow area. With the addition of snow trains to the program this year, it was estimated that possibly the season's attendance might be double that of last winter.

FORMER RESIDENT PASSES ON

James H. Stevenson, age 71, passed away October 12 at the home of his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Stevenson, in Mt. Pleasant. He had been ill about a week. Mr. Stevenson lived on the Manistee River near Camp Arrowhead for several years and was very well liked by all who knew him.

Burial services were held Monday, October 14, from the Reileig Funeral Home in Gladwin and interment was in the Highland Cemetery. Rev. Henry Schmidt officiated. Surviving are one brother, Frank LaChance of Cadillac, and one sister, Mrs. Jean Swift of Flint, also several nieces and nephews.

John Peterson Named As Chamber Vice-Pres. at Friday Meeting

Wesley Kumpula, Grayling High School Principal was elected as the 1946-47 President of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce at their annual meeting held at the Crawford County Court house last Friday evening.

John H. Peterson was named as vice-president and Jerome Kessler, who has been secretary-treasurer for the past three terms consented to act in the same capacity temporarily until a successor could be named by the new group of directors.

It was revealed at the meeting, that the members of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce had elected as their directors for the coming year the following men: Kumpula, Peterson, Leslie Hunter, Fred Welsh Jr., Clyde Thompson, Wesley LaGrow, Robert Strong, Rella Failing and Walter Dude-wicz ended in a tie for the eighth directorship and Dudewicz was declared winner by the flip of a coin. Failing was declared to be a director-at-large to automatically fill a vacancy that might arise during the year.

Arthur Clough, President of the group for the past two years gave a yearly report on the activities of the Chamber. He pointed out the many routine problems that had been taken care of by the Grayling group without any fanfare. With some of the retiring directors, he also told the new group of some of the plans and ideas that they had in mind but which time did not allow them to complete.

Secretary-Treasurer gave a complete financial statement which can be found on another page in this issue in full detail. He also had prepared a complete statement on the winter sports activities, income and expenses for last winter. He also pointed out that the membership of the Grayling Chamber of Commerce stood at 105 members this year against 78 members for the previous year.

One of the first acts of the newly-elected President Kumpula was to appoint a committee to revise the dues schedule of the membership and to report their recommendations at the next meeting.

He appointed Vice-President Peterson and Director Strong to act on the committee along with Secretary-Treasurer Kessler. The usual meeting night for the Chamber officers and directors is the second Friday of each month but due to the proximity of the opening of deer season to the second Friday of November, it was decided to call the next month's session on the first Friday of the month.

Conservation Commission to Recommend 50 Per Cent License Jump

To meet the 50 per cent increase in conservation department operating costs that has come with the general price rise, the conservation commission is recommending general increases in hunting and fishing license fees for consideration by the 1947 Legislature.

Increases recommended in the proposed schedule for residents would raise from $1 to $2 the fee for fishing and for small game hunting, from $2.25 to $3.50 the fee for deer hunting, from $1.50 to $2 the fee for trapping, and set the beaver trapping rate at $2 plus $2 per seal.

Nonresident fee increases recommended are higher: up from $1 to $3 for the 10-day fishing permit, from $2 up to $4 for the annual fishing license, a straight $15 for small game hunting instead of the $5 and $15 fees for different zones as at present, $35 for deer hunting instead of $25, and $10 for deer hunting archers, double the present fee.

The commission turned down a proposal for a special trout license.

Exclusive of 40 cents of each deer license earmarked for special purposes, the new fee schedule would yield an estimated income of $4,132,750 for operation and maintenance of programs designed to sustain the greatly increased hunting and fishing pressure.

Of the new estimated income, $225,000 would be used to hire 50 additional conservation officers.

The commission authorized spending $85,000 to rear 25,000 pheasants next year, if the situation warrants restocking on such a scale.

GAYLORD PCA SETS MEETING DATE

Mr. Ostrander, president of the Gaylord Production Credit Association, announced this week that the annual meeting of its 750 farmer stockholders will be held on Monday, November 4. The meeting will start at 11:00 a. m. with a dinner served to members and guests at noon. Committees made up of directors and members are working on various features of the program for this important event.

Sportsmen Plan Annual Election

The Grayling Sportsman Club will hold their annual election of officers at a meeting to be held on October 23, it was decided at their regular monthly meeting held last week.

A nominating committee comprised of Jack Wade, Carl Easton and Jack McClain will present a slate of candidates at the meeting. Yearly summaries were given by Secretary George Bielski and Treasurer Hurl Decker prior to their yearly reports which will be presented and handled at the annual meeting on October 23.

The Treasurer's report showed the club to be in a fine, sound financial condition, while the high point of Secretary Bielski's report was the fact that the club had 268 paid membership during the past year.

Officers to be named at the annual meeting are President, Vice-President, Secretary, Treasurer and Director-at-Large.

To Feed Deer If Winter Is Severe

Preparing for the time when a severe winter will succeed the three recent mild ones and catch the state's expanded deer herd short of winter food, the conservation commission has voted $25,000 for preparation of an emergency cutting program in state-owned deeryards.

The plan calls for cutting by private operators under the usual timber cutting permits, wherever possible, but cutting would be at the places and times where deer food—in this case the tops of cedar trees—was most needed.

The department's game and forestry divisions will select areas and make arrangements with timber cutters so cutting can be done this winter if necessary. While planning this "relief operation," game men emphasize that it is a temporary measure, and not a long-range solution to the problem of managing the size of the deer herd.

Under the one-buck law, deer in some areas at times have increased to the point of literally "eating themselves out of house and home" in the deeryards.

Harold Cliff left Tuesday to meet Royale Wright in Minden City, where they planned to hunt, the latter coming from Detroit where he had been on business.

Red Nichols was in Grayling last week-end.

SCOTCHMORE CLASS
The Scotchmore class had a big turnout for their first dance of the year. The name of the dance was "Scotchmore Swing Sensation" and the gym was decorated like a football field. At one end of the goal posts was a large football with Coach Cornell's name on it. At the other end the goal posts held a large football containing all the names of the football boys of the year. Around the top of the gym, little footballs were hanging. At the door everyone received a small football with "G. H. S." printed on it.

ENLIVENING CHILEAN PRESIDENTIAL ELECTION... Here is shown one of the numerous fights that marked election day in Chile, when the people went to the polls to vote for a new president. Communists and Socialists were rivals in the brawls. The tackle here seems to be trying to haul his opponent into the ditch. Gabriel Gonzalez Videla received a majority of votes over his opponent Eduardo Coke.

Emily Giegling and Albert Lozon and Beth Servan and Jack Cedar. The candy dance was won by Phyllis Bennett and Robert Lozon. Music was furnished by the school's Victrola and new loud speakers. All of the latest records were played. It was a very good turnout with 137 tickets sold at the door. We hope to have as many to our other dances throughout the year. Joan Harwood.

Amy Gothro's 188 was the high individual score for the week, while Iva Jarmin's 485 was the high series. Sorenson's 748 was high weekly team game and Jarmin's 2007 was high team series.

The weekly high individual game of Amy Gothro was also high so far this season, while Fern Akers' series of 488 still was higher in that list. Sorenson's high single game was also best so far this season, but Jarmin's series of 2049 was 42 pins better than this week's effort. Fern Akers held the lead in high average for the season with 145, followed by Iva Jarmin with 133, Emma Burth with 137 and Clara Sorenson and Margrethe Nielsen tied with 133.

CONK'S COL

Small game season opened Tuesday: Locally that means rabbit and bird hunting. Neither variety is very plentiful close to town. So far, the duck season has not been anything to cheer about. The continued warm weather has probably kept the ducks away. We need only a few quackers have been brought down so far by the local nimrods. With cooler days now with us, the flights will be on—and then the duck hunters will really "go to town".

But Don promised to tell us all about it when they got back, with complete statistics of the catch.

Saturday night we ambled over to the Weaver Hogan, to find our usually radiant friend looking the zero-minus of dejection. We asked about the catch. Don was mum—but Ernie held up his good right paw making the universal sign of nixey-nixey—no fish. And then Don poured out their tale of woe. We interpret it here is the tale of grief:

The dauntless duo left Ernie Borchers' wharf at 2 o'clock, with spirits high and songs in their big hearts. Ernie was chanting some more or less Frenchy chanty, and Don was wielding the paddle in time with the warbling.

All went well, not including the fishing. Ernie was landing big fat chub after big fat chub, and the trout, from under and besides logs, were waving their fins in a trout interpretation of the well known Bronx cheer until at a point some five miles or so down-river, the canoe rode over a mighty sharp snag—and a gash about 18 inches long was ripped in the bottom of their Hiawathan craft.

Instantly a geyser of frigid water came spouting into the canoe. There they were, a long way from home and their destination, Stephen's Bridge, and in the middle of the swamps.

Don, who acknowledges he can swim like a stone, yelled for Ernie to use his water-proof fishing hat as a baler, while he, Don, plied the paddle; they tell me Don was a prize-winner on all the famed canoe regattas on the Stillwater River, down near Versailles, Ohio, in his much younger days.

Don plied the paddle with the speed of a windmill in a high gale—while Ernie baled out the water in a continuous process—the aqua pura going over the side of the canoe in volume similar to that from a Grayling hydrant when Gavage Granger turns it on.

We have it that each mighty dip of the paddle almost lifted the craft out of the river, thereby lessening the inflow of water from the bottom-rip.

Somebody told us the fishing in that stretch of the Ausable, some fifteen miles, was no good for two days after this trip, due to the way Don and Ernie stirred up the usually placid stream.

Further, Don and Ernie both say they made the 15 miles in a half hour. As no one clocked them, and there were no witnesses but the dumfounded trout and one big buck over the entire course, we have no means of verifying their estimate.

No sooner did they beach the damaged canoe at Stephen's well-known bridge than they flopped on the turf and passed out. In this prone state John, the Baptist, who takes care of Don's ranch down near the South Branch, found the night's canoe men when he came after them, hours later.

So dry were their tonsils (tho'—so states Mrs. Don—their duds were wringing wet) they each absorbed a dozen bottles of beer on the line of "Sheridan's Ride". arrival home.

The canoe has been mended—but Don swears that, the next time they make a trip down the river it will be in his Dow magnesium boat. "It," says Don, "is at least puncture-proof."

Grayling, Michigan, Thursday, October 17, 1946

Why Kim Sigler?

Why am I for Kim Sigler for Michigan's next Governor? A lot of people have asked me that and there are just as many answers as there are people who question me.

First, let me say that I personally like the man as a person and that I believe that he is sincere, trustworthy, unafraid and has the ability to do the job.

Secondly, I believe that Michigan deserves and should expect sound, honest and good government and I think Kim Sigler will give it to us after he is elected on the 5th of next month.

Third, I think that what information Kim Sigler has from his grand jury investigation should be brought out on the table for all to see and action taken upon this information. I feel sure this will be done when he is elected. The crooks, bribers and bribe-takers, of course, are not anxious to see Kim in Lansing. If there is corruption in Lansing, it should be cleaned up and kept cleaned up. Kim Sigler is equal to this job, I am confident.

Fourth, from talks with Kim Sigler I feel that he understands Michigan, all of Michigan, metropolitan, outstate and upper peninsula, better than any public official I have ever met. And I'll let you in on a little secret, Kim knows all of Michigan better than any of the others because he likes and understands people. Michigan is just made up of people like you and I whether its in Iron River, Monroe or Grayling. It's so simple that most of the high-powered politicians haven't been able to understand it.

Fifth, Kim Sigler is no politician. He makes no promises. Pet theories are to be decided on merit alone and not on political deals. He does not answer a query here in one way and in another somewhere else because of political expediency.

Sixth, I am for Kim Sigler because I am tired of being pushed around by bureaus, tribunals and all the rest of the red tape from Washington. I'm tired of going without meat, shirts, pants and other too, too numerous articles to mention. I am tired of the confusion in our nation's capitol that has so mixed up our foreign policy that we are the laughing stock of the Paris conference. I am tired of the political isms preached by members of a political administration that has brought us to the brink of hunger, industrial collapse and moral decay. And I say to you that there is no better time to start the long, hard road back to sound American realism than by getting off on the right foot in Michigan this fall.—R.W.S.

VETERANS' PRIORITIES

Out of every 15 veterans of World War II in Michigan, one of them has placed an order to buy surplus goods from War Assets Administration.

The total number, approximately 40,000, want more than 60,000 separate items. A total of 8,004 have been certified for items on the "set-aside" list, goods held for sale to veterans only and which can be purchased for personal as well as business uses. Included are many hard to get items.

In August, 1719 veterans were certified to buy items on the set-aside list for personal use and 606 wanted items for their businesses. Many of these orders will be filled during the next month, during which WAA will conduct an intensive drive to sell all items on the set aside list.

Items on which veterans get a priority, next only to that of the Federal Government, include everything from airplanes to screwdrivers, 30-foot boats, soap, TNT, foodstuffs, clothing and textiles.

HERE'S TO HEALTH

WHY "SEARCH" FOR HEALTH?

Not so long ago people travelled far and wide "in search of health." This was particularly true if they had tuberculosis. They thought their only hope lay in a change of climate.

Today we know that a high, dry climate is not essential to recovery from tuberculosis. In fact, doctors say time spent in travelling around in search of a magic climate may delay recovery.

Increased knowledge about tuberculosis has taught us that recovery depends, not on climate, but on rest. The most important thing for the tuberculosis patient is to obtain complete bed rest. The best place to obtain this complete rest is in a tuberculosis hospital. A tuberculosis hospital near the patient's home is as good—and often better—than one at a distance, regardless of the climate.

A hospital near the patient's home has several advantages. It means that the patient will not be too far removed from his family to receive visits from his relatives from time to time. Usually, the patient is less inclined to worry about home conditions if he can see members of his family occasionally. And when a doctor recommends complete bed rest, he knows that, regardless of the physical position of the patient in bed, rest is not possible unless the mind is at ease.

Since recovery from tuberculosis depends upon treatment, and not climate, and the essence of treatment is rest, there is no reason for the tuberculosis patient to "search for health" by travelling to a far away place. No climate will of itself "cure" tuberculosis. Treatment for tuberculosis can be undertaken in any climate. The chances of arresting the disease and restoring the patient to normal living are best when treatment is begun early. Instead of searching for a "magic" climate, the tuberculosis patient will save valuable time, and also money, by placing himself under competent medical care near his own home.

operations. But since finances are always complicated to understand, proponents of Ballot Proposal No. 2—the sales tax diversion amendment—have a strong case when they simplify the issue in the following words: The State is getting more money than it needs: Look at the surplus! Return more of our tax money to home governments.

"We don't want a bonus!" was the decision of American Legion delegates assembled in San Francisco last week for a national convention.

How much affect this recommendation will have on Ballot Proposal No. 3, the $270 million veterans' bonus, is a matter for voters to decide. The bonus will add $17,500,000 annually in tax cost to the state's general funds. The Michigan Farm Bureau has come out strongly against it. Significant fact: The $50,000,000 veterans' trust fund, authorized by the state legislature, was originally proposed as a sensible substitute for the cash bonus.

Michigan Leads in Army Enlistments

Colonel Walter C. Cole, Commanding Officer of the Michigan Recruiting District, today announced that Michigan led the entire Fifth Army in volunteer Regular Army enlistments for the month of September.

Total enlistments accomplished during this record-breaking period were 2,978. First place in the 12-state Fifth Army Area was awarded on basis of percentage of enlistments obtained compared to population of the state. Combined efforts of the 12 states in the Fifth Army Area have put Fifth Army near the top of the nation's six armies.

Colonel Cole anticipates another record-breaking month for October on the basis of 925 enlistments for the first four days. This is a new high level for four days, created by the wish of Michigan youth to obtain full benefit of the G. I. Bill of Rights by October 5.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Want a Vacation from Marriage?

Alvin Elsko went south on his vacation, for some fishing, and left his Missus to enjoy a vacation from the corn-cob pipes, clothes in a heap, and solos on the harmonica.

First few days, Martha enjoyed it—house neat and quiet, top back on the toothpaste, no morning mess from Alvin's midnight snacks (Al's partial to a bit of cheese and beer at bedtime).

Come the end of the week, she began to fidget; couldn't even read the Clarion, it looked so unmissed; didn't have any appetite with no body to cook for. She was about to wire Al, when he barges home a week ahead of time, and she almost cries for gratitude. ("Felt the same way myself," says Al)

From where I sit, those differences of habit and opinion—whether they have to do with corn-cob pipes, a glass of beer, or playing the harmonica, seem mighty trivial when you're separated. And they are, too!

JANET BLAIR, in pigtail, calico dress and high button shoes, reported for a test for "Regina" in Columbia's "Gallant Journey"; Producer-Director William Wellman said she was the first girl he thought of for the part. She was supposed to look 11, and she did. She says it was the first time she wasn't told that she looked too young to play a role. Janet started her career as a soloist with Hal Kemp's band straight out of high school, broke into pictures before she was 20. In her colorful gay 90s costume she grows up charmingly in the picture, with Glenn Ford, who's 19 when the picture begins, romancing with her.

Between scenes of "Angel on My Shoulder," Claude Rains covered his own shoulders with a worn tweed coat. He's superstitious about it. He wore it on the "Casablanca" set—the picture won an Academy award. And on the set of "Caesar and Cleopatra" in London, for which he got the highest salary ever given an actor, $1,250,000.

"Happy Hollywood Homes" will be the title of a Columbia Screen Snapshot, showing film players and directors and their mates who've been married for more than 10 years. Producer Ralph Staub expects to have about 60 such couples in the picture. Unprejudiced observers think maybe he's sticking his chin out, since Hollywood marriages have a way of breaking up even after 10 years.

Fred Waring and his Pennsylvanians, who have a schedule calling for six half-hour broadcasts a week (five mornings and Tuesday evenings) have found time to transcribe a special 15-minute show for the Veterans' administration.

If a tune's danceable, singable and has an appealing idea, the chances are it's set for the "Hit Parade," according to Harry Warren, who wrote "On the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe," "Down Argentine Way" and other hits. "Of course," he added, "a Bing Crosby or Frank Sinatra to sing it won't do any harm." He's currently writing the music for M-G-M's "Summer Holiday."

Walter Pigeon ("Mr. Miniver," "Ferry Curle," etc.) will shag, truck, do the Susey and Big Apple with Claudette Colbert for a jitterbug routine in "The Secret Heart," now before the cameras at Metro. Quite a change for the dignified Mr. Pigeon!

"Possessed" is the new title of the Warner Bros. picture starring Joan Crawford, known till now as "The Secret." It looks like another top-notch for her; Van Heflin plays opposite her, Raymond Massey and Joan Chandler have important roles.

Johnny Desmond sent a cartoon of his latest records to Princess Elizabeth of England at her request. She became a Desmond fan when he sang for her in Bedford with the Glenn Miller army air force band, and asked that copies of his first recordings be sent to her. It was reported later that Desmond was her "favorite crooner," she'd heard him sing his "Soldier and a Song" over the armed forces network.

Meredith Willson has been named to the music advisory committee of the Atwater Kent radio auditions, one of the radio's oldest and most honored radio institutions, which was started in 1927, but was discontinued during the war. Resumed this year, it is designed to uncover young talent in singers and musicians, and has given a start to many a successful career.

ODDS AND ENDS—CBS News Reporter Bob Carver has completed narration for a Columbia Pictures short and executives plan to put him under a year's contract for similar picture shorts. "White Fences" has been bought to replace Bill Cargan's "Murder Will Out," with the role of "Serious Health" played by Humphrey Davis. Dan Seymour, rotund character actor in "Clock and Dagger," used to be a circus strongman. Bing Crosby's been notified that he's the favorite vocalist of American occupation troops in Europe; next in order—Frank Sinatra, Kenny Rogers and the King Cole Trio, according to a poll.

Budget Balance Seen As Key To Stability

For the fiscal year ending next June, the Federal government expects to spend $41,500,000,000, more than four times total expenditures in the pre-war year 1938-39.

Treasury receipts for the current fiscal year are estimated at nearly $2,000,000,000 less than expenditures.

Thus in the first full peace-time fiscal year, with national income holding close to the war-time peaks, the government is still operating in the red.

As a result, business men and economists are urging more strongly than ever the achievement of a balanced budget to aid the return of the nation to economic stability.

The unbalanced budget is regarded by economists as one of the main sources of the inflationary rise in prices.

The Chamber of Commerce of the United States, representing business views in the nation's capital, calls the 1946-47 budget "disappointingly high" and urges cuts in Federal spending as the key to financial stability.

Michigan Plan Really Working

More than 40,000 veterans have received "home town" medical care under the Michigan Plan since it went into regular operation six months ago.

Of this number, approximately 15,000 veterans were given medical examinations and 25,000 received medical treatment, according to John W. Castellucci, Field Director of Michigan Medical Service.

The Michigan Plan, which provides "home town care of veterans" for service-connected disabilities, with free choice of doctors, is an agreement between the Veterans Administration and the Michigan State Medical Society. Authorization for a veteran's examination and treatment is made by the Veterans Administration and the veteran goes to the physician of his choice. The doctor is then paid for his services by Michigan Medical Service, non-profit prepayment organization established by the medical profession, which handles the administration and supervision of the plan.

Initially sponsored by General Paul B. Hawley, acting Chief Medical Director of the Veterans Administration, the Michigan Plan has been so highly regarded by the Veterans Administration that many other states and Hawaii have sent inquiries to Michigan Medical Service concerning the possible adoption of a similar plan.

Plan Bear Hunt With Dogs

Michigan's first modern bear hunt with dogs will be in Missaukee county October 22-25. Harry Gaines, secretary of Michigan United Conservation Clubs, announced after signing up H. T. Smithdeal of Johnson City, Tenn., with his hounds and eight-hand-

Headquarters of the hunt will be at Houghton Lake, and the number of hunters may be limited to 100, Gaines said. Local arrangements are being made by Carl T. Johnson of Cadillac, chairman of the MUCC big game committee, in cooperation with the conservation department's game and field administration divisions.

Smithdeal and his trained dogs are accustomed to running bear 70 to 80 miles over rough country. He believes that in Michigan's smaller wild land areas the bears, never before run with dogs, may be quickly.

Missaukee is one of the Michigan counties in which bears are not protected by a closed season.
